

The 2nd District of Missouri participates in the annual Congressional Art Competition.

This high school competition encourages and recognizes the rich artistic talents of our nation's young people. The winning entry from each congressional district is displayed for one year in the Cannon tunnel beneath the Capital Building in Washington, DC. Each winning student and a guest is eligible to attend a Congressional Reception honoring this year's student winners and is eligible to receive a $1500 renewable scholarship from a noted art college.

The competition is open to all high school students who reside in or attend school in the 2nd Congressional District. Please complete the student information release form to the right and see the official art competition guidelines for more information.

All art work should be submitted through Congressman Akin's St. Louis district office. Student entry forms must be submitted by the April 16, 2010. Entrants will be invited to the Awards Ceremony and Reception, hosted by Congressman Akin.

To submit your student entry, please complete the Official Student Entry Form . If you would like more information on the Congressional Art Competition, please contact my St. Louis District Office
